1. INTRODUCTION

Welcome the Christian Essene Church as the new manifestation of God. Beings wonder and ask what this Essene Nation and this Christian Church are all about ... Is it positive or negative? Where does this manifestation come from and what does it bring as seed and as message?

I will tell you that this church goes back to the origins of creation. It appeared on earth with the incarnation of Enoch, on a continent that has now disappeared. Today's humanity has no memory of it, for it goes back to well before all known civilizations, such as those of Egypt, India and even earlier civilizations. This church has taken a body through the work of Enoch and has been perpetuated in various forms until today. One of its most beautiful manifestations was that of the Christic Way, which taught that God speaks within man, giving him the gifts of his Holy Spirit, such as healing, ennobling or the capacity to individualize in consciousness to help and serve the lower and higher kingdoms.

This path of union with God, reconciliation, love and healing is fundamental and it is why the term "Christian" has been put in the official name of the Essene Church. It means that the purest inheritance of early Christianity passes into the nascent church.

The Christian Essene Church proclaims that God the Father is the source that gives life, bringing resurrection, ennobling and healing.

Today, the Christian Essene Church is reborn and brings an initiatory path, a wisdom of mysteries, exoticism and an alliance with the divine world that religions or other initiatory currents no longer have. Perhaps you will ask yourself if it is positive to enter this body of the original tradition through the Christian Essene Church and I will say that this church is a body on earth by the will of God. No man can claim the manifestation of the Christian Essene Church on earth. God alone is its creator. God wanted His religion to appear on earth in a renewal.

Thus, tomorrow, the Essene religion will be the new religion of men on earth, the new covenant of man with God; it will be the healing of the worlds, not in the sense that men generally give to this term, but in a broader, more global sense, that of restoring dialogue and harmony among all worlds, all kingdoms and to establish rules of life that will bring happiness and fullness.

The soul and the divine knowledge brought to this incipient church comes from the intelligence of the Gods, Archangels and Angels, who have united to fulfill the will of the Father. The Christian Essene Church is fundamental to humanity and the earth, not necessarily for what it is today but for the world of tomorrow, which is preparing and building. Tomorrow, a multitude of beings in search of meaning will be able to gather within a framework that will have been elaborated for them so that they can reconnect to the Source and commit themselves to a path of authentic evolution. Thus, the body of Tradition is perpetuated until Christ, the Light of the world, reappears on earth in all his glory, leading his people to the Father, the Source, and immortality.

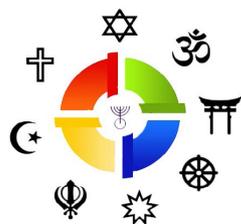

Today, the Christian Essene Church is under construction, but tomorrow, it will be in its fullness and in the harvest of all that will have been sown by the pioneers who respond positively to the call of the Light. Men and women who build the Christian Essene Church on earth do the best they can and give their best; they are faithful and true, even if they do not understand everything they do, for it exceeds them. But I tell you that it will eventually become a Great House in which a multitude of beings will come to regain a dignified life and a path of Light. Then the new religion of God will appear on earth, which will bring forth a body able to welcome Christ again. Such is the will of God. Those who build this church today must understand that they are writing a future for mankind and the earth, and that they are blessed.

The Christian Essene Church carries within itself the synthesis of all the religions of the world. Here you will find the teaching that leads to the inner awakening, which Buddha transmitted to humanity; devotion and taking care of the other, brought by the master Jesus; the sense of study and understanding the laws, which is the pillar of Judaism; discipline and values of the family, taught by Mohammed... The Essene religion is the house of God, it contains the quintessence of all religions and traditions that have existed through the ages. In this, it is good, just and far from being dangerous. Only man can bring in the intruder, who is not welcome, but what is taught by God can only be beneficial to all mankind and the earth. Perhaps the old religions will take offense at seeing a new face of the universal religion of the Light and will use the accusing words “satanic,” “sect,” or the like against the new church and covenant of God. The truth is that Light frightens them, for every new manifestation of God systematically brings about a transformation of humanity.

That is why dogmas, which have become dead letters, always have difficulty in passing, but this will happen over time. For God is greater than all, He is above religions and it is His will that the new covenant will appear through the Christian Essene Church. The Essene Nation will grow and reveal the greatness and divinity that will lead humanity towards a new dimension of Light. I say to all men who love God, who seek to be faithful to Him and to serve Him that it is good and positive to enter this church. Join the Essene Christian religion on earth, for it is the covenant with God, not the god of the dead, but the living One, who wants to take on a body to speak and teach humanity a new way, a new way of being in the world. The 4 pillars of this new religion are the 4 great Archangels: the Archangel of Air, Raphael; the Archangel of Water, Gabriel; the Archangel of Fire, Michael and the Archangel of the land of Light, Uriel. They are the 4 foundations of the Temple of Earth and the Round of Archangels and they will be honoured and venerated in future generations and civilizations. I invite you to enter this path and to participate in this work now, in order to build a Divine body on earth in purity for future generations. Welcome this treasure in your life and enjoy this gift. Participate actively in the construction of what will become the blessing for all beings.

Essene Bible Book 31- Psalm 186

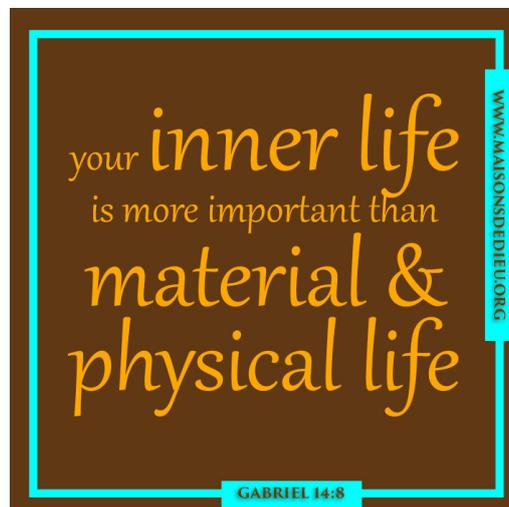

2. THE ESSENE THOUGHT

Essenism is beyond any dogmatism, any sectarianism and any religious, political, cultural or racial difference. It is the universal religion desired by the divine world, which unites all beings for the same purpose, as a single family, banishing all war and conflict. It is the religion willed by God. It is above all, a way of being in the world, a state of being, respect for all beings.

Whether you are Jewish, Buddhist, Christian, Muslim, atheist ...

If you believe that God is alive through fire, air, water and earth; the 4 elements, which constitute the life, the existence and the universality of the universe.....you are an Essene. If you believe that the earth is our Mother and that it is the visible manifestation of the divine mystery, that we must take care of the divine by taking care of the earth and its visible kingdoms; plants, stones, animals, men.....you are an Essene.

3. TO PERCEIVE GOD, THE DIVINE ESSENCE WITHIN MAN

If you believe in the values of respect towards all beings, respect for the virtues, the dignity of man, respect for animals, plants, minerals, you are an Essene. When you perceive what is hidden today, you will free yourself from deceitful appearances and you will understand the importance of relating to your divine essence, the only source of blessing in your life.

To perceive the divine essence in you is to receive the blessing of God. It is to welcome Him by turning your heart towards Him. It is to put yourself in motion in your life by the possibility of another way of being in the world, of another perception, another point of view and the appearance of another path and a new horizon, greater than death. It is the greatest treasure.

To see otherwise necessitates being strong, for it is necessary to develop other organs, and therefore another organization of life.

God must be the center, not man. To be strong means to resist the influences that constantly bring everything back to man. It is a weakness that always leads us to identify with the coarse world. The light of the divine essence is subtle and can live with man only through subtlety and lightness.

To receive this light is to receive the blessing of God, to receive God in one's life. To open one's heart deeply is to return one's heart to Him. Turning one's heart back to God, the divine essence is to make God live within, in one's thoughts, feelings, will and actions. Thus, thoughts are sanctified, for they become clear, intelligent, and luminous. Feelings welcome His reign, a kingdom of peace and harmony. The will is in the force to act by doing good, and acts become right and true in everyday life.

4. REVELATION OF THE NAME OF GOD

When God appeared to Moses on Sinai, He revealed His Name to him in Hebrew, saying, “Anouki Adonai!” This means: I am the Lord, the one who was, who is and who will be; meaning: I am life, existence, the Lord. This word is the same as that of Jesus Christ: “I am the way (the way, the door), the truth (what is, reality, facts) and life (existence, life).”

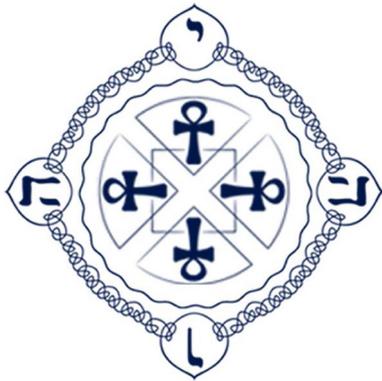

This life, which animates us all, this life without which there would be no existence, manifests itself in the physical reality:

- Fire that animates and warms us;
- Air that fills and inspires us, the breath of life;
- Water that purifies, cleans us and quenches our thirst;
- Earth that carries, stabilizes and nourishes us.

These are the 4 elements, which constitute the existence, the life, the mystery of the Name of God revealed to Moses.

IOD HÉ VAU HÉ, the 4 letters of the Name of God, the Hebrew alphabet that gave birth to the Name of Iahwe (YHVH) in the Christian tradition, or Jehovah.

Behind these four letters are the four holy animals of the Apocalypse, or Revelation of Saint John, the last book of the Christian Bible. These are the 4 living beings that form the throne of the Lord, the origin, the source of all things and all life in the visible and invisible universe. This 4-letter Hebrew Name of God is composed according to 4 degrees of vibration, from the most subtle to the most dense.

- 4 states of matter: fire, air, water and earth
- 4 directions : North, South, East, West
- 4 seasons : fall, winter, spring, summer

5. THE IMAGE OF GOD IN MAN

י

The first letter, the IOD, corresponds to the element of fire in the universe and thought in man. His divine quintessence is kept in the higher worlds by the Archangel Michael, the one who is like God; He stands at the eastern gate.

ה

The second letter, the HE, corresponds to the element of air and the sphere of feelings and the senses. His divine quintessence is kept in the higher worlds by Archangel Raphael, the breath of God, the Holy Spirit; He stands at the south gate.

ו

The third letter, the VAU, corresponds to the element of water and to the sphere of the will. His divine quintessence is kept in the higher worlds by Archangel Gabriel, the strength of God; He stands at the western gate.

ה

The fourth letter, the second HE, corresponds to the element of earth and the sphere of acts. His divine quintessence is kept in the higher worlds by Archangel Uriel, the power of God; He stands at the north gate.

The whole world of man and the universality of the universe are constituted by these four elements, not only in the visible world but also in its invisible counterpart.

Another reading says that:
the IOD is the Father;
the first HÉ is the Mother;
the VAU is the Son;
the second HÉ is the daughter.

When it is said in Genesis of the Christian Bible or the Sefer Yetzirah, the book of the creation of the Jews, that God created man in his image and likeness, it is this mystery.

The image of God in man, which is his temple, his house, the house of God in the world of matter, visible reality, is the thought (first letter), feelings (second letter), will (third letter) and act (fourth letter).

And in the invisible world, the world of spirit is the 4 intelligences. Behind the fire of clear thinking stands Archangel Michael, the one who is like God.

Behind the air of health and virtuous sentiments stands Archangel Raphael, the breath of God, the spirit of life or the Holy Spirit.

Behind the pure water of good will and healthy relationships is Archangel Gabriel, the strength of God.

And behind the land of good works and righteous acts stands Archangel Uriel, the power of God.

6. THE ARCHANGELS

The Archangels are the Fathers of the 4 elements that make up the whole universe, their divine intelligence, their quintessence. Thus, they alone maintain the cohesion of the cosmos and the great cycles of life that manifest on earth through the 4 seasons and the 4 elements. Archangel Michael is the Father of fire and the face of God through the fall; Archangel Raphael is the Father of air and the face of God through the spring; Archangel Gabriel is the Father of water and the face of God through the winter; Archangel Uriel is the Father of the earth and the face of God through the summer. The Archangels manifest themselves in the kingdom of men as a divine higher intelligence, immutable laws, and eternal wisdom. In the reality of man's life, the Archangels stand behind the laws of the four areas of activity that summarize the life of man.

Archangel Michael is behind work. Archangel Raphael is behind health. Archangel Gabriel is behind family. Archangel Uriel is behind money.

When these laws are respected, the divine blessing appears in the life of man; in work, health, family and money.

When the seed of the four living beings is welcomed into the heart of man by the good turnaround of the heart, the seed of God's likeness can appear and germinate therein, bringing liberation, healing, protection and blessing into the life of man.

7. PERCEPTION THROUGH THE EYE OF GOD WITHIN

Meditate on the importance of your vision and the way you look at the world.

If you change your look, you will avoid many trials in your life.

Wake up and do not persist in keeping certain points of view that are erroneous and have thoughts that do not conform to the Light. I am not saying that you are aware of this process in you, quite the contrary, and that is why I say to you: meditate, and understand that there are beings, worlds, intelligences that animate you, your gaze, your vision, your way of perceiving the world, without your knowledge. It can be your religion, your education, your culture, your race or the influence of your environment.

If you want to wake up, you have to know who you are, what world you belong to or what circle of influence you are in, and what future your steps are leading you towards.

Take control of your eye and take hold of your whole life.

Today, man is so programmed by worlds and influences that he is often unaware that there is a trial or suffering that will enable him to remove this wrong vision of life that he cultivates daily, and to awaken a new perception of things.

Through trial, man can awaken and begin to look at the world in another way.

Sometimes he is imprisoned in a mental image, a behavior, a feeling, a memory that lead him to be stubborn and guide his whole life, imprison him in a specific atmosphere. Man then sees nothing else, he is completely obsessed with the world that surrounds him and he can no longer divert his attention to perceive other worlds, other possibilities, other atmospheres that can change everything to bring him blessings and luck in life.

Learn to see things and to look at them differently or you will have to go through the pain to understand the importance of being open and to focus on what is right and good.

It is not good to indulge indefinitely and stagnate on a state of being and force, situation, or a life that leads to suffering, destruction and abandonment. For when a force of destruction has accomplished its work, through the experience of trial, it often abandons man to his sad fate.

So be aware that the test is not only for the weak, those who do not believe in the wisdom and intelligence of the worlds, but also for the disciples who are stubborn and persist in the wrong direction.

The test simply serves to free man from an atmosphere that envelops him and in which he breathes his everyday life. He can discover another breath, another vision, another thought ... if he manages to awaken.

If you are wise in listening to these words, then, know that it is not for nothing, it is not by chance that you are on the road of awakening and awareness. It is because God in you wants you to hear these words. It is because you are ready to leave the concepts that have shaped you and made of you what you have been until today. Then open your heart and hear the call of the depths of your being.

I advise you to evoke the state of consciousness that will remove the evil eye from you and will open the perception, through the eye of God in you, your divine essence. Do it through open-mindedness, wisdom, understanding, heart and goodwill. The heart is good because it goes towards others and they can then become the mirror reflecting the image and evoking the reaction that will allow you to contemplate, to discover your own thought, your world, your vision and the influences that direct your life.

8. HOW TO ENTER THIS WISDOM?

Do not stop on your path of learning and evolution. Seek until you find and accomplish.

Do not ask yourself about ephemeral certainties and beliefs, because the biggest trap is triggered when man is convinced that he knows, when he has not reached the goal. He believes he knows, but in fact he just fell asleep and the knowledge left him.

Life does not like what stagnates; it is similar to water that is always in motion and seeks not only to move forwards, but to evolve.

Life loves new inspirations, simply because new beings, new forces, new influences come to associate with it, in order to make it grow and prosper. If you stagnate, nothing grows inside you.

If you live with the same vision, the same thought, you will always be with the same environment and the same beings, the same worlds, the same destiny. If you are sure of your understanding, be vigilant, for he who knows with certainty and who fixes himself upon this knowledge is ripe for the trial. It is only the trial that can awaken a being of such a certainty and make him understand that his thought has become fixed, that his understanding is just a personal point of view which does not include others, humanity, the universe and life, which are all around him.

Be in a permanent state of learning.

Study constantly and let your heart grow to come closer to love without borders; love as a strength and state of consciousness, love as living knowledge, experience, and a way of being, as the realization of beauty and your path of evolution, love as the divine essence in you; for God is love, spirit and life.

Face the challenge, the choice and the present moment; question yourself, not to change the foundations and the principles of your life, but to discover if there is another point of view, something bigger, more noble, which brings a freedom to think, act, love and to open the heart.

9. KEEP YOUR HEART FOR GOD

The physical body of man is mortal in the sense that it belongs to recycling, is limited and suffers.

Greatness in man begins with the heart.

The germ of the second man, the unborn man, the immortal, the divine essence, the divine being in all beings resides within the body of man.

Men who identify with the physical body devote themselves to recycling. They say: “The heart is me, it is what belongs to me, it is what I feel, what I see,” for they bring everything back to the physical body; however, Archangel Michael, father and guardian of the divine fire in man, tells us that the heart is much greater than the physical body. It accompanies the body during his journey on earth, but fundamentally, lives in another world and does not belong to the body, nor to the head that is born of it.

The heart does not feed on what is mortal. It needs harmony, deep joy, immensity, eternity, the benefits of the Light, ecstasy, mystery, love of God and ideal beauty. Basically, it needs purity, bliss, to be filled with happiness. That is why Jesus said in Matthew 5:8, “Blessed are the pure in heart, for they shall see God.”

So, if you want to pray to your Father, enter into the hidden and God, who is there, will answer you. This place is the purified heart, the door that allows the divine kingdom to enter.

So take care of the heart, the values of the heart, the intelligence and needs of the heart.

The heart must be protected and nothing must hurt it. It must be preserved from the darkness and the interests of the purely material life, which sometimes requires harshness, valor, and acts that remain unknown to the gentle breathing of the heart.

The necessities of material life must not stifle the values and dimensions of the heart.

The heart is the temperature of human life.

The more the heart is great, generous, open, tolerant, pure, filled with love, the more the Angel of God can accompany man, live with him, protect him, guide him and prevent him from unnecessary suffering.

If you live in anguish, discontent, it is that your heart has atrophied and that it can no longer breathe with your Angel and your soul.

The heart is the gateway of the worlds and the one that allows conversation and communion with the Angel of God and people of the Angels-virtues.

The Angel of God wants to create in you the second man, the immortal, your true being.

Angels are a world of the heart, noble virtues, and benefits.

In their world everything is deep, everything has meaning and the virtues of the heart are exalted and omnipresent. Breathing is in happiness, sweetness, communion of souls. The heart fills everything: thoughts, words, aspirations and deeds. Truth, honesty and affection are the foundations.

Do not lead your heart into the world of death and recycling, where everything is cold, violent, aggressive, hard. This world is the one in which you are currently living; it is the world created by man.

Do not enslave your heart, for it is the protector of the purity of your life and the condition for the establishment of dialogue with the higher worlds. The one who loves is a devotee of truth, honesty, purity ...

It is not a calculator, it does not think in interest, it just wants to be in the good and propagate the good.

It likes boundless expansion of what is right. It possesses the power to heal everything, to establish order, to sanctify, ennoble, appease.

Many people move away from the heart, favouring the development of the head or the will. They create an imbalance by enslaving the essential virtues of the heart. This is not the noble path. Of course, the head and the will are essential, but they must be balanced by the heart, which is the focal point of the healthy development of man on earth.

Only the heart can awaken man in the essential and lead him to the divine.

Let us come closer with a sincere heart, an unshakeable faith, a heart purified of unconsciousness. For the Eternal, the divine being in you does not have the same view as man: man looks at what strikes the eyes, but the Eternal looks at the heart.

So awaken, listen to the call of God and turn your heart back to Him to take your life in hand and walk on the path of immortality. Your heart will illuminate your intelligence and strengthen your will. It will show you that life is greater than death and greater than the limiting physical body.

Cultivate this center of energy in you, protect it, take care of it. It is the inner sanctuary in which God will appear to show you who you are beyond death, appearances and the body.

10. THE INNER SANCTUARY

The one who wants to go towards God, fundamentally needs to have a space within, in the hidden, where he can take refuge and enter in order to be in communion, sharing, conversation with his inner being, his soul, and even with God and His representatives, the Angels, Archangels and Gods.

There is within each man a sanctuary, a sacred place in which God resides, in which He is living, present, conscious.

All temples, in all nations have been built to remind men that there is within them, a place of happiness, harmony, eternity, immortality.

This place is hidden, it belongs to the mysteries. It is located in the center of man, in the heart. It is surrounded by a protection, a shell that makes it invisible.

Man can live many lives while totally ignoring the presence of this inner place within him that unites him to eternity. He is then a wandering soul, a traveller who seeks outwardly what is, in truth, inside. It is simply wrong, and passes by the narrow door. He cannot enter into this secret. He is like a being who has no house, no tradition, and no roots. He is caught by fear, he is always suspicious, on the lookout for external aggression, never resting or sleeping.

Only the one who seeks to enter this space-time of the heart will be able to meet the wonder. It is the flame of God that is permanently lit by the immortal life, the very essence of life. It is a worship of fire and light.

God is there, in the inner fire of your being. He is the air filled with Light in your breathing. He is the water of wise thought, noble sentiments and true deeds. He is a land that carries all the divine seeds and leads them to perfection. Only the pure, the transparent can enter this sanctuary, those who are liberated from darkness, greed and fear, those who have received the vision and turn around their hearts. There stands God, Who gives man the chance to do all things new, to begin all over again, to regain a body, to transform, to change his destiny and to lead his life to the heights of creation, the heights of his being.

The one who is on the path must find this inner space and learn to take refuge there. It is intimacy with God. This place should not be shared with anyone but God. This sanctuary must remain intact, inviolate from the troubled, sterile of agitation and the stupidity of the world of man who gives himself to death.

The mortal man knows only how to imitate the Light. He will say that he walks on a spiritual path, that he practices various meditation and relaxation techniques that give him serenity, but it is a lure, a form of hypnosis that brings a rest, a soothing to the body and to the mortal being. It is nothing more.

Archangel Michael teaches us of an inner and invisible sanctuary in which the body and the mortal self no longer exist, and cannot enter. In this sacred place, only God is alive. It is His intelligence that illuminates and His wisdom that governs with the authority of the circle of his Angels, the great virtues. For the heart is the seat of the virtues.

All blessings will be offered to the man who will enter into his heart by the blessing of the Good Turnaround of the Heart, for the Good Turnaround of the Heart is the blessing of God to all men: Jews, Christians, Muslims, Buddhists, all religions, cultures, peoples, for the true religion is within; it is the religion of the heart, the path of the covenant between God and all men.

So, awaken, listen to the call of God and turn your heart around to Him by taking your life in hand and begin on the path of immortality. Your heart illuminates your intelligence and strengthens your will. It will show you that life is greater than death and greater than the limits of the physical body.

Cultivate this center of energy in you, protect it, and take care of it. It is the inner sanctuary in which the flame of God will appear to show you who you are beyond death, appearances and body. May the path of Light be opened to you.

Receive the blessing of God through the Good Turnaround of the Heart.

Know that the Good Turnaround of the Heart is the perception of God, the eye of God that opens up in man.

The Good Turnaround of the Heart is to look with the heart, to open one's heart to another perception, to open one's heart to something beyond appearances, to open one's heart to intimacy towards his soul, his thought, his feelings, will and actions; taking his life in hand by the awakened look, living with a virtue, living with the Angel of God inside you.

Know that the Good Turnaround of the Heart is the blessing of God in your life.

May the Good Turnaround of the Heart be the way of awakening in your life.

May the Good Turnaround of the Heart be the narrow gate by which you enter and by which you will discover yourself, not as you are now, but as you are for all eternity, such as you are in your soul, in your mind, as you are beyond appearances, as you are in the magic and likeness of God within you.

Is it not said in the Bible that you are gods?

(John 10:34)

Then, find the divinity that is hidden inside you, through the Good Turnaround of the Heart. Enter through the narrow door, look at the flame that stands in your heart, the sanctuary, honour this flame, become that flame. Then you will live with the Light, the blessing.

May the blessing of God of the Good Turnaround of the Heart be the blessing of God in your life, bringing awakening, light of the Angel, luck, prosperity, virtue in your life.

Receive my great blessing of love and peace, and let the Good Turnaround of the Heart be the birth of the path of enlightenment and the Light for you.

May the Good Turnaround of the Heart be the encounter with your intimacy, with God inside you.

11. PRAYER IN PREPARATION TO RECEIVE THE BLESSING OF THE GOOD TURNAROUND OF THE HEART

*“ God, I honour God, omnipresent.
I honour God in thought, word and deed. God alone is great.
I renounce to man, the intelligence, feelings, the will of man.
Father, deliver me from man, that I may think, feel, live, fulfill my duties by remaining with You, in the right perception, in the right

*I do not want to awaken man or the image of man,
But I want to awaken You, God, Father-Mother, the omnipresent Holy Spirit.*

*When I think, it is You who thinks, through Archangel Michael.
When I feel, it is You who feels, through Archangel Raphael.
When I want, it is You who wants through Archangel Gabriel.
When I act, then You act through Archangel Uriel.*

*If You do not act in my act, it is not just.
It is devoid of soul and intelligence, it is false, distorted.
Deliver me from being distorted, from not being with You, from being no longer granted.*

*Allow me to take back my life in order to be in agreement with You,
You, the universal good,
You, beauty without borders,
You, unconditional love, You, wisdom without darkness,
You, perfection, liberation, ultimate fulfillment.*

I can do nothing but think, speak and act. I want to do it with You and for You.

Father, bless me, open my senses, open my heart.

May my will be illuminated with your presence so that my act may be yours and that all belongs to you since you alone are You, your immortal Angels, You and your immortal Archangels, You and your immortal Gods. Amin. “
